

If Only the World...

Bree Dorman

What if we live in a society where everyone is concerned about the change in the climate &

the potentially devastating effects if we don't limit it?

“The world is a book, and those who do not travel read only a page.”

“The world is not ours to give, but to serve.”

—John F. Kennedy, 35th President of the United States

“We must learn to live together as brothers or perish together as fools.”

—Martin Luther King Jr., Civil Rights Leader

“The world is a dangerous place, not because of those who do evil, but because of those who look on and do nothing.”

—Albert Einstein, Physicist and Philosopher

“The world is a book, and those who do not travel far read only a page.”

—Saint Augustine, Early Christian Theologian

“The world is a stage, and all the men upon it are but players.”

—William Shakespeare, English Playwright and Poet

“The world is a vessel, and we are the tools of God.”

—Saint Ignatius of Loyola, Founder of the Society of Jesus

“The world is a stage, and all the men upon it are but players; it is a little stage where every man, in his time, comes on it, has his part to play, and goes off again.”

—William Shakespeare, English Playwright and Poet

“The world is a book, and those who do not travel far read only a page; but he who travels far reads all.”

—Saint Augustine, Early Christian Theologian

“The world is a stage, and all the men upon it are but players; it is a little stage where every man, in his time, comes on it, has his part to play, and goes off again; his exit should be as his entry was, with grace and courtesy.”

—William Shakespeare, English Playwright and Poet

“The world is a vessel, and we are the tools of God; let us therefore use them well.”

—Saint Ignatius of Loyola, Founder of the Society of Jesus

“The world is a stage, and all the men upon it are but players; it is a little stage where every man, in his time, comes on it, has his part to play, and goes off again; his exit should be as his entry was, with grace and courtesy; but let him not go off without having done his best.”

—William Shakespeare, English Playwright and Poet

“The world is a vessel, and we are the tools of God; let us therefore use them well; but let us also remember that we are not the only tools of God; there are other vessels, other tools, other players, in this great drama of life.”

—Saint Ignatius of Loyola, Founder of the Society of Jesus

Install an eco-air humidifier thermostat, which will help you stay within the ideal temperatures for being environmentally friendly & will notify you if you go over.

Try to walk,

or bike to shorter distances,

take public transit for greater distances.

People will not take the environment for granted and will want to make changes to benefit the future.

The rise in global temperatures would be flattened down within a few years in the future & make the environment very eco-friendly..

Arctic bears, which live on polar ice, fight to survive as the ice melts, while salmon rely on icy,

steady-flowing rivers to breed

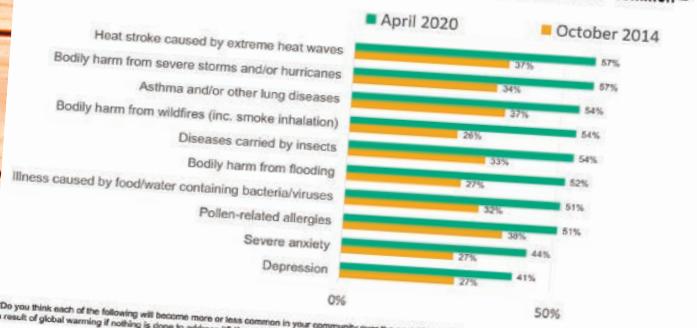

Some salmon populations are declining as climate change impacts the temperature and flow of particular streams.

An Increasing Number of Americans Think Global Warming's Harms to Human Health Will Become More Common - % responding "Much more," "Somewhat more," or "a little more" common -

"Do you think each of the following will become more or less common in your community over the next 10 years as a result of global warming if nothing is done to address it? If you're not sure, please provide your best estimate."

People's actions

have a significant influence on the environment.

If we do not make adjustments to become more environmentally friendly, the environment's condition will worsen.

"We don't have time to sit on our hands as our planet burns. For young people, climate change is bigger than election or re-election. It's life or death."

Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, US Politician & Activist

"I hold a vision of this blue green planet, safe and in balance. At the end of the Fossil Fuel Era, we are emerging to a new reality. We are ready to make the next leap – as momentous as abolishing slavery or giving women the vote."

Elizabeth May, Leader of Green Party of Canada

"Climate change knows no borders. It will not stop before the Pacific Islands and the whole of the international community here has to shoulder a responsibility to bring about sustainable development."

Angela Merkel, Chancellor of Germany
